first published in 1949 and praised in the new york times book review as full of beauty and vigor and bite a sand county almanac combines some of the finest nature writing since thoreau with a call for changing our understanding of land management approaches the prevalent issues in ecology from an aesthetic viewpoint stressing the beauty and balance of nature aldo leopold s a sand county almanac has enthralled generations of nature lovers and conservationists and is indeed revered by everyone seriously interested in protecting the natural world hailed for prose that is full of beauty and vigor and bite the new york times it is perhaps the finest example of nature writing since thoreau s walden now this classic work is available in a completely redesigned and lavishly illustrated gift edition featuring over one hundred beautiful full color pictures by michael sewell one of the country s leading nature photographers sewell whose work has graced the pages of audubon and sierra magazines walked leopold s property in wisconsin and shot these photographs specifically for this edition allowing readers to see sand county as leopold saw it the resulting layout is spectacular but the heart of the book remains leopold s carefully rendered observations of nature here we follow leopold throughout the year from january to december as he walks about the rural wisconsin landscape watching a woodcock dance skyward in golden afternoon light or spying a rough legged hawk dropping like a feathered bomb on its prey and perhaps most important are leopold s trenchant comments throughout the book on our abuse of the land and on what we must do to preserve this invaluable treasure this edition also includes two of leopold s most eloquent essays on conservation the land ethic and marshland elegy with this gift edition of a sand county almanac a new generation of readers can walk beside one of america s most respected naturalists as he conveys the beauty of a marsh before sunrise or the wealth of history to be found in an ancient oak nature writings of aldo leopold one of the foremost conservationist of our century since his death in 1948 aldo leopold has been increasingly recognized as one of the indispensable figures of american environmentalism a pioneering forester sportsman wildlife manager and ecologist he was also a gifted writer whose farsighted land ethic is proving increasingly relevant in our own time now leopold s essential contributions to our literature some hard to find or previously unpublished are gathered in a single volume for the first time here is his classic a sand county almanac hailed with thoreau s walden and carson s silent spring as one of the main literary influences on the modern environmental movement published in 1949 it is still astonishing today a vivid firsthand philosophical tour de force along with sand county are more than fifty articles essays and lectures exploring the new complexities of ecological science and what we would now call environmental ethics leopold s sharp eyed often humorous journals are illustrated here for the first time with his original photographs drawings and maps also unique to this collection is a selection of over 100 letters most of them never before published tracing his personal and professional evolution and his efforts to foster in others the love and sense of responsibility he felt for the land the first sustained study of leopold s seminal book as well as a work of art philosophy and social commentary in the light of the looming ecological crisis facing the world today much of the stunning beauty of the natural world is being lost forever on the origin of beauty seeks to confront this crisis through a philosophical enquiry into our perception of natural beauty through discussions of numerous fields including the philosophy of science environmental ethics rationalism and eastern and western religion griffin asserts that beauty itself may be the catalyst needed to save the globe from destruction please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 the months of the year from january to june are a geometric progression in the abundance of distractions in january you can follow a skunk track search for bands on the chickadees or see what young pines the deer have browsed an eloquent case against accepted notions of private property and free markets is at the heart of this finely argued plea for basic changes in the ways humans view the earth justice and the earth urges people to envision an integrated tapestry of natural systems for which they are responsible rather than an economic resource they own
